

PETERKA & PARTNERS opens an office in Moscow

Prague, 21 December 2009 – The law firm PETERKA & PARTNERS announces the opening of an office in Moscow.

The Moscow office is the fourth foreign office of PETERKA & PARTNERS. It will be managed by the attorney David Šimek and it will render, proactively supported by the firm's partners, complex legal services to clients doing business in Russia.

Despite the economic crisis PETERKA & PARTNERS pursues its ambitious foreign market expansion strategy with the intent to create own regional network in Central and Eastern Europe. During its ten-year existence the law firm succeeded in the markets in the Czech and Slovak Republics, Ukraine and Bulgaria.

In the Russian market PETERKA & PARTNERS regularly represents many of its clients. Ondřej Peterka, Managing Partner, states that he feels the necessity of being present in the country as the clients' demand for legal consulting services in Russia keeps increasing.

The new office will start with a team of three lawyers which in larger projects will be supported by cooperating Russian law firms.

Clients and business partners may contact the new office at the following address:
